DETAILED ACTIONDrawings

1. Applicant's representative notified examiner on 9/9 that he had received an office action (mailed 8/30) comprised only of the detailed action and the reviewed 1449 form. Accordingly, the missing references and the missing 892 are supplied with this repeated action and a restart on the applicant response period.

Drawings

2. New drawings will be required contingent upon allowance because the drawings were objected to by the declared informal by the applicant.

Restriction/Election

3. Applicant's election of the Group I claims on 6/3/02 in Paper No. 4 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)). The restriction requirement is made final.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 18-20 are rejected under 35 U. S. C. 112 second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

By providing a providing means, it is indefinite whether the providing means provides itself.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

- (a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.
- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States
- (e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

7. Claims 1-6, and 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hamm et al. which discloses:

(Re: cl 1) apparatus for delivering a companion device with delivery of a product apparatus (c3 L 15-17, art supplies with paper) comprising:
control means for controlling dispensing (12)
actuator coupled to control means 24
link for effecting cooperation (28 Fig 1)
(re: cl 2) companion means includes a dispensing means (82)
(re: cl 3) communications means for communicating (c3 L 37-52)
memory means for storing operational information
(re: cl 4) communication means comprises a telephone connection with a remote controlling station (c3 L 37-52)
(re: cl 5) communication means comprises an input access port for providing control by an operator (fig 3)
(re: cl 6) communications system comprises a satellite communication connection with a remote controlling station (c4 L 15-19)
(re: cl 18) method for providing at least one item of value from an apparatus in cooperation with operation of a companion device comprising providing a control means for controlling a providing (12)
providing a providing means (c7 L 27-43)
providing a link for effecting cooperation(28)
(re: cl 19) communication means coupled with apparatus for communicating operation information with apparatus regarding operation of apparatus (232/234 & 244)
providing a memory means for storing operational information (re: cl 20) communicating a directive comprising a change from a remote locus (c16 L 40-67).

Art Unit: 3653

8. Claims 1-5, 7-8, and 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rivalto which discloses:

(Re: cl 1) apparatus for delivering a companion device with delivery of a product apparatus comprising:

control means for controlling dispensing(102 fig 2)

actuator coupled to control means (20)

link for effecting cooperation (c 3 L 1-7)

(re: cl 2) companion means includes a dispensing means (24)

(re: cl 3) communications means for communicating (c 3 L 1-7)

memory means for storing operational information (14)

(re: cl 4) communication means comprises a telephone connection with a remote controlling station (c 3 L 1-7)

(re: cl 5) communication means comprises an input access port for providing control by an operator (18)

(Re: cl 7) at least one item of value comprises a a coupon redeemable for at least on second product (24)

(re: cl 18) method for providing at least one item of value from an apparatus in cooperation with operation of a companion device comprising providing a control means for controlling a providing (c4 L 38-55)

providing a providing means (c4 L 38-55)

providing a link for effecting cooperation (c4 L 38-55)

(re: cl 19) communication means coupled with apparatus for communicating operation information with apparatus regarding operation of apparatus (c4 L 38-55)

providing a memory means for storing operational information (c4 L 56-c5 L7; 110)

(re: cl 20) communicating a directive comprising a change from a remote locus (c6 L 10-27).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 3653

10. Claims 1-6, 8, and 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hamm et al. in view of LaDue in which Hamm et al. discloses the elements previously discussed and LaDue discloses the elements not inherently disclosed by Hamm et al. of:

(Re: cl 7) at least one item of value comprises a a coupon redeemable for at least on second product (c1 L 45).

It would have been obvious at the time of the invention for Hamm et al. to dispense a coupon because related product use may be encouraged as taught by LaDue and come up with the instant invention.

11. Claims 1-8 and 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rivalto et al. in view of Comer et al. which Rivalto et al. discloses the elements previously discussed and Comer et al. discloses the elements not inherently disclosed by Rivalto et al.:

(re: cl 6) communications system comprises a satellite communication connection with a remote controlling station (fig 1)

It would have been obvious at the time of the invention to include a satellite communication link because a satellite link may facilitate communication in remote locations in wiring is impractical as taught by Comer et al. and thereby come up with the instant invention.
